

Sorry there were a couple of bonuses I forgot. Every MN1K or North Star Rally needs some Laura Ingalls Wilder.

075 LIW Laura Ingalls Wilder Museum - Walnut Grove, MN Points: 125

44° 13.468' -95° 28.321'

There's only one Walnut Grove. Walnut Grove is a city in Redwood County, Minnesota, United States. The population was 751 at the 2020 census. The population expands many fold each year for the The Laura Ingalls Wilder Pageant, it is an experience like no other. It's a look into what life was like in Walnut Grove in the 1880s as the Wilder family and Walnut Grove community members made their way through challenges, triumphs and so much more. Walnut Grove is 37 miles west of Sleepy Eye on US-14. From US-14 go south on MN-5 1/2 block then east on Ingalls Street to the museum. Get a photo of the "Laura Ingalls Wilder Museum"

What's the deal with all this Laura Ingalls Wilder??? Eddie James, our founder and spiritual leader shared a birthday with Laura. Eddie's childhood was very difficult and he found the Little House books somehow comforting. He then sent the unsuspecting rally rider to every conceivable Laura Ingalls Wilder museum, home, marker and gift shop. So, It's an Eddie James thing.
